

CHI St. Joseph's Health

Community Benefit Report FY2022

We faced challenges under the pandemic's "new normal." While the country faced staffing challenges, our staff remained committed to caring for our communities. I am proud of our team's resiliency and dedication to provide quality care to all. Our vision is to expand the services offered to local communities. We will also remain focused on our quality, service and strong culture that supports our team. Our goal is always to continuously improve the experience for our patients.
