

High in Plain Sight Training

CHI St. Joseph's Health, Hubbard in Prevention (HIP) invites you to attend full-day training with the Tall Cop.

High in Plain Sight: Current Alcohol, Drug and Concealment Trends and Identifiers

Friday, May 10th from 9:00am-4:00pm

Armory Arts & Events Center (203 Park Ave S, PR)

Cost: $25 - Includes training, breakfast and lunch.

Scan QR code to register. Registration deadline: April 26

High in Plain Sight covers topics such as:

- Drug and Opioid trends
- Legal drugs to avoid detection /drug tests
- Alcoholic energy drinks and alcopops
- Synthetic drugs
- E-cigarettes / vape pens
- Inhalants, concentrates and OTC drugs
- Social networking sites
- Drug dangers to first responders
- Marijuana wax and oils and new products and so many more topics

Officer Jermaine Galloway, known as the Tall Cop, is a highly respected and internationally recognized instructor on alcohol and drug trends. Regarded as one of America's top drug experts, he is a valuable resource for those involved with prevention, education, treatment, and enforcement.

This training is designed for: educators and school administration, prevention and treatment providers, law enforcement, counselors / treatment providers, probation officers / department of corrections, alcohol and drug courts, narcotics officers, medical staff, drug interdiction officers, coalition members and a shorter version for parents.

Questions? Contact: angela.graham@commonspirit.org